

WORLD CRUISES

A R I O N Carrying no more than 330 passengers, Arion is an intimate cruise liner of great charm and character. Since joining the Classic International Cruises fleet back in 2000 she has built up an enviable reputation as being one of the "friendliest ships afloat" providing a relaxing and informal style of cruising suited to discerning clients looking for good old-fashioned service standards and that personal touch, often lacking in today's modern and hectic age.
